

Come hear student leaders from Cuba during the

Cuban Student Academic Exchange

Wednesday April 14th

7:00pm Reception

7:30pm Program

Hunter College
West Lobby

(#6 Train to 68th St)

Yenaivis Fuentes Ascencio, 23, was born in Guantánamo, Cuba. Fuentes completed five years of study at the School of Medical Sciences in Guantánamo and is finishing her sixth and final year of undergraduate medical studies in Havana. Fuentes is serving as the National Public Health Education Coordinator of the Federation of University Students.

Aníbal Ramos Socarrás, 30, was born in Manzanillo, Cuba. Ramos is a third-year graduate student in surgery at the Manzanillo School of Medical Sciences at the University of Granma where he finished his undergraduate medical studies with honors. Ramos served one year in Haiti with a volunteer medical brigade. He is a leader of the Federation of University Students at the School of Medical Sciences in Manzanillo.

Program will include a discussion period where people will be able to raise questions and comments.

Sponsored by:

the Political Science Department, the Africana Puerto Rican and Latino Studies Department, the Women and Gender Studies Program, and Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños; as well as the Student Political Science Association, the Hostos Puerto Rican Club, Africana Puerto Rican and Latino Studies Club, the Young Socialist Club, and the Women's Rights Coalition

Reception organized by:

Casa de las Américas and the July 26th Coalition, an ongoing initiative by organizations and individuals in solidarity with Cuba, in the NYC/Tri-State Area.

This event is free and open to the public

For more information, please contact Dr. Victor Torres-Velez at vtorresv@hunter.cuny.edu